QUO VADIS?

Where are you going?

“Quo Vadis” is the Latin phrase for “Where are you going?” Legend tells us that St. Peter asked Jesus this question on the outskirts of Rome. And we know where Jesus went in response to His Father's will.

Quo Vadis Days is a 3-day camp for Young Catholic men to learn more about the priesthood, to deepen their faith, and to better discern God's call in their lives.

What is the Father's will for me? How can I know what God wants?

Quo Vadis Days is a camp experience sponsored by the Diocese of Yakima's Vocations Office to provide a time of fun, prayer, and talks to help you explore the Lord's call in your life.

There will be priests, seminarians, and other young men like you gathered for 3 these days. Our activities will include prayer, swimming, soccer games, talks, and discussions.

We hope that you will consider taking time to discern the Lord's will in your life with us at QV Days. It is a great opportunity to let the Lord speak to you and to spend time listening to Him.

¡THE NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS IS LIMITED TO 70 YOUNG MEN, SO REGISTER SOON!

“A little mercy
Makes the world more just”
- Pope Francis

In order to respond to the call of God and start on our journey, it is not necessary to be already perfect. Weaknesses and human limitations do not present an obstacle, as long as they help make us more aware of the fact that we are in need of the redeeming grace of Christ. This is the experience of St. Paul who confessed: “I will all the more gladly boast of my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me” (2 Cor 12, 9).
