We welcome Fr. Gene Delmore, S.J., who entered the Jesuits on Aug. 15, 1956 with Pete Henriot in Sheridan, Oregon. Fr. Gene is the eldest of ten siblings, six sisters and four brothers. After completing his formation, he was ordained in 1969 and served in campus ministry at Seattle U for six years, then to Alaska and 27 years in the cities of Fairbanks, Anchorage and the villages around St. Mary's on the Yukon and Bethel on the Kuskokwim river. He served at St. Joseph's parish Yakima from 2005 to 2011 and St. Rita's parish in Tacoma from 2011 to 2018. He is currently doing spiritual direction and pastoral ministry from his community at Bellarmine high school in Tacoma.

Pete Henriot, S.J., is a native of Tacoma. He was ordained a Jesuit priest in 1970. Ministry: 17 years Washington DC; 28 years Zambia-Malawi. He moved back to Tacoma in 2016 to continue fundraising for Loyola Jesuit Secondary School in Malawi. He is currently doing pastoral work in Tacoma, including chaplaincy in ICE Detention Center.
