Literacy Wagon Ministry

Funding

100% of the proceeds collected will go towards books, activity kits, educational games, religious items and other important items to sustain this ministry.

Serving the Children of Migrant Workers

This ministry is a mobile summer education team made up of seminarians, catholic teachers, and volunteers to serve the children living in farm worker camps. While parents work in the fields, children learn to read and write English, and we ensure to keep school-aged children on track for thier next academic school year.

A Need in Central Washington

Central Washington covers 18,000 square miles of mostly rural land. Each summer, the Catholic population significantly increases when 100,000+ migrant workers arrive to harvest our crops.
